MIRACLE AND PERCEPTION REVERSED

This month, get honest with your true desires and you will see them materialise! The clear thinking of the third chakra in the Miracle card is halted by Perception reversed. Miracle reminds us that it is our integrity that will turn on the light. Perception reversed reveals a hidden gem. Perhaps there is a need to see the gifts you have in your life now. It's time to start believing in yourself. Remember plans that you make may get stopped if your heart is not in it, but don't be discouraged! Stay focused and on track with your plans. There is a miracle waiting around the corner... all you need to do is find it and choose what to do with it.

ISOLATION REVERSED AND EXPANSION REVERSED

What a month you have ahead, Taurus! Remember that what opposes exposes, and with all this reversed energy, you may find yourself stepping out of character and being called into the limelight! Both cards are fifth chakra cards, which is the chakra of manifesting. The question is: are you ready? This is your time to step out of Isolation and be the one called upon to help others. Be open to all requests this month, as they may lead you to where you want to be, even if it doesn't seem to be the road when the opportunity appears. Remember: the current view from the train does not indicate the destination. This is your time!

JOY AND JOY

Of course! I read this with two decks... and how fitting that the twins would have twin cards this month! Ironically, Joy can take on two very different meanings. Joy is the idea that you bring happiness and laughter to everyone around you. This is why you are the life of the party and truly loved. The alter ego of the Joy card is that you may not always feel the happiness you so freely give away. This month, the focus is on planning (third chakra) joy for yourself. What will it take for you to experience the delight you give? Remember: new social opportunities can bring out the other side of you – the side that craves fun!

RELEASE REVERSED AND IMPASSE REVERSED

Ah, the home fires are burning you out! Release reversed unveils the shadow side that you are currently facing or have recently faced. Impasse doesn't say no, it just says "not this way". When the seventh chakra meets the second chakra, it's clear that you are working with getting your message out into the world. With Release reversed, you are letting people go who you have kept alive only in your memory. This leads into Impasse reversed as an indicator that there is a new way being presented on the horizon. While this may appear to be heavy, it is a huge burden being released. Look for a sense of relief ahead. A new direction will appear very soon.

CONFUSION AND RELEASE

Both of these are seventh chakra cards and indicate living with and being aligned with spirit. Confusion is a brilliant place to land, as it is in being with the unknown that gives you a chance to truly create. When spirit holds us (as depicted on the card), we are given an opportunity for freedom. This is the place where spirit can speak to us without us being tied down. Linked here to the Release card, there is a chance to let go of our own challenging self-talk. As the life of the party, you are taking time here to go inside and commune with yourself. These are two powerful cards to set the stage for the next performance! Remember: Even the Queen of the Jungle needs 'me' time.

QUEST REVERSED AND RELEASE

This has been quite the year for you Libra! It has taken time for you to recognise that you have been on the right path all along. Quest tells us that your journey has been necessary for self-trust, and you have communicated your truth all along. Finally, you have let others off the hook (release cards) for the injustices they have created. True freedom for you is in recognising that the scales of justice may never really be balanced, but they will be fair in the long run. Remember: you will come out ahead.

DISCOVERY AND VANITY

When we look at our root chakra we see where we have come from. This is a month when you see that you may have outgrown the people from your past. Sometimes, they are not bad people, they just may not be good for us. This month you will be cutting loose the people that are inauthentic. You may be cunning and sly, but you are craving authenticity. The truth is that you are cutting ties from old ideas and discovering a new way to grow. You are no longer who you thought you were.

SERVICE AND IMPARTIALITY

The second chakra card reveals the emotional connection you have. Whether challenging or fun, it is time for you to rise above old ideas around how others are being, and look at who you are. With the seventh chakra of impartiality, you will get a chance to see both sides of the story and open yourself to understand another point of view. This will offer you a glimpse into the idea that another person's motives are not against you, they are for themselves. How can you both get what you want?

VICTIM REVERSED AND FORGIVENESS

Oh, Capricorn, it is time to let go of what your heart knows is not in your best interests. Victim reversed creates a breakthrough in what you will no longer stand for. You must let go of old attachments. The Forgiveness card in the sixth chakra indicates that it is time to forgive yourself for loving or caring for others who were not capable. By remembering that it is not personal, and that the other parties are simply not capable, opens the door to self-forgiveness.

CREATION AND FAITH

Double sixth chakra cards = double sixth sense! You have known for sometime that the key to your own well-being is through your creative spirit. The Creation card indicates that it is your time to do more for yourself, as you have given so much to so many for so long... What is stopping you? Faith says it is the idea that something is stopping you! In the fable, the girl holds a brick in front of her face and cries that she is blocked. When she puts the brick back in the road, spirit guides appear to help her.

PRAYER AND DISSIPATING

Wow, Pisces! Double yellow third chakra. Are you overthinking? You will be faced with making choices that will determine your future much more than before. First in the prayer card, a crossroads will appear. Yes, both roads are filled with challenges and wonder, but you will choose wisely. Then you will need to determine if what you say you want, is what you desire. This month, choice, decisions and plans will be in the mix. Whatever you choose, ask yourself: "will my future self be proud of my choices?"

Meet Tori

Tori Hartman is a professional intuitive. Following a near-death experience almost 20 years ago, Tori was visited by a spirit who told her a collection of brightly coloured stories. These stories prompted her life-long fascination with colour, the chakras and their power to transform and heal lives. Her latest release, How To Read The Cards For Yourself And Others will teach you how to interpret your own readings with her Chakra Wisdom Oracle Cards.
